July 12, 2017

TO: The holders of Series C 7.50% convertible unsecured subordinated debentures due September 30, 2018

The Series C Debenture Amendments

You, as holders ("Series C Debentureholders") of the Series C 7.50% convertible unsecured subordinated debentures due September 30, 2018 (the "Series C Debentures") of Holloway Lodging Corporation (the "Company"), are being asked to consider certain amendments (the "Series C Debenture Amendments") to the Series C Debentures (as amended as proposed, the "Amended Series C Debentures"), which, if approved by the Series C Debentureholders, will:

- (a) EXTEND the maturity date for the Series C Debentures from September 30, 2018 to September 30, 2021;
- (b) AMEND the conversion price of the Series C Debentures to $12.50, being a conversion rate of 80 common shares of the Company ("Common Shares") per $1,000 principal amount of the Series C Debentures. The Series C Debentures are currently convertible into $285.71 in cash and 28.57 Common Shares (with an implied conversion price of $25.00) per $1,000 principal amount of the Series C Debentures; and
- (c) AMEND the terms of the Series C Debentures to provide that Debentureholders may, at their option, upon receiving an exchange notice from the Corporation (an "Exchange Notice") exchange their Series C Debentures for a new series of Debentures of the Corporation ("New Debentures") having the terms set forth in the Exchange Notice.

To Vote for the Series C Debenture Amendments

To vote for the Series C Debenture Amendments please mark the "VOTES FOR" box on the accompanying form of proxy and sign and deposit such document in accordance with the instructions set out therein as soon as practicable and in any event by 2:00 p.m. (Eastern Daylight Time) on August 4, 2017.

Approval of the Series C Debenture Amendments

For the Series C Debenture Amendments to be approved, holders of at least 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ % of the principal amount of the Series C Debentures, present or represented by proxy at the serial meeting of the Series C Debentureholders (the "Series C Debentureholder Meeting"), must vote FOR the Series C Debenture Amendments. The Series C Debentureholder Meeting is scheduled to be held at the offices of Bennett Jones LLP, at 3400 One First Canadian Place, Toronto, Ontario, M5X 1A4, on August 9, 2017 at 2:00 p.m. (Eastern Daylight Time). The quorum for the Series C Debentureholder Meeting is the presence in person or by proxy of Series C Debentureholders representing 25% of the principal amount of Series C Debentures outstanding at the record date, which has been set by the Board of Directors of the Company as the close of business on July 4, 2017. Each Series C Debentureholder present in person or represented by proxy at the Series C Debentureholder Meeting shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each \$1,000 principal amount of Series C Debentures held by such Series C Debentureholder.

If the Series C Debenture Amendments are approved by the Series C Debentureholders, the Company anticipates that the effective date of the Series C Debenture Amendments will be on or about August 16, 2017. The Company will enter into the first supplement to the second amended and restated trust indenture dated July 31, 2014 among the Company and Computershare Trust Company of Canada which provides for the Series C Debenture

Amendments, such supplement to be substantially in the form attached as Appendix "C" to the accompanying management information circular ("Circular").

Listing

The Toronto Stock Exchange (the "TSX") has conditionally approved the listing of the Amended Series C Debentures. The Amended Series C Debentures will continue to trade on the TSX under the symbol "HLC.DB.A".

Benefits of the Debenture Amendments

The Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") believes that the Series C Debenture Amendments provide the following advantages:

- Continued Favourable Interest Rate: While the maturity date for the Series C Debentures is September 30, 2018, the maturity date for the Amended Series C Debentures will be extended to September 30, 2021, thereby affording Debentureholders a longer period of time during which to receive interest at a favourable rate. The Company believes the 7.5% interest rate on the Series C Debentures represents an attractive yield, especially in the current low-interest-rate environment and in light of other reinvestment opportunities available.
- Beneficial Change in the conversion rights of the Debentures: Series C Debentureholders will have the right to convert the Series C Debentures into common shares of the Company at a lower conversion price. Additionally, the conversion price will be satisfied entirely in common shares of the Company rather than in a combination of cash and common shares of the Company. Therefore, Series C Debentureholders will have more opportunity to participate in the growth of the Company's business. This conversion feature offers Series C Debentureholders the opportunity to generate capital appreciation from the Series C Debentures in addition to earning interest during the extended term.
- Strong Financial Position: The Company has the financial capacity, through its committed credit facilities, to redeem the Series C Debentures at this time. The Company believes that doing so would result in Debentureholders losing an attractive and recurring source of income as well as the potential for capital appreciation through the amended conversion feature of the Series C Debentures.
- Flexibility for Debentureholders. Series C Debentureholders will be able to elect to exchange their Debentures for New Debentures of the Company if the Company delivers an Exchange Notice to the Series C Debentureholders. Any such exchange would be voluntary. At this time, the Company is not proposing to make any exchange offer.

For further particulars of such benefits see "Benefits of the Series C Debenture Amendments and Recommendation of the Board" in the accompanying Circular.

The Series C Debentures are currently convertible into $285.71 in cash and 28.57 Common Shares (with an implied conversion price of $25.00) per $1,000 principal amount of the Series C Debentures; and
- (c) AMEND the terms of the Series C Debentures to provide that Debentureholders may, at their option, upon receiving an exchange notice from the Corporation (an "Exchange Notice") exchange their Series C Debentures for a new series of Debentures of the Corporation ("New Debentures") having the terms set forth in the Exchange Notice.

Other than the foregoing amendments, and the Series B Debenture Amendments, the Indenture will remain unchanged.

The full text of the Series C Debentureholder Resolution is attached to this Circular as Appendix "A".

For the Series C Debentureholder Resolution to be adopted in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture, it must be approved by the affirmative vote of holders of at least 66⅔% of the principal amount of the Series C Debentures, present or represented by proxy, at the Series C Debentureholder Meeting which is scheduled to be held at the offices of Bennett Jones LLP, at 3400 One First Canadian Place, Toronto, Ontario, M5X 1A4, on August 9, 2017 at 2:00 p.m. (Eastern Daylight Time).

The Series C Debentureholder Resolution, if passed by the holders of at least 66⅔% of the principal amount of the Series C Debentures in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture, will be binding upon all Series C Debentureholders.

For the Series B Debentureholder Resolution to be adopted in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture, it must be approved by the affirmative vote of holders of at least 66⅔% of the principal amount of the Series B Debentures, present or represented by proxy, at the Series B Debentureholder Meeting which is scheduled to be held at the offices of Bennett Jones LLP, at 3400 One First Canadian Place, Toronto, Ontario, M5X 1A4, on August 9, 2017 at 2:30 p.m. (Eastern Daylight Time).

BENEFITS OF SERIES C DEBENTURE AMENDMENTS AND SERIES B DEBENTURE AMENDMENTS AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD

Benefits of the Debenture Amendments

Management and the Board regularly review and evaluate the Company's capital structure and strategic options with a view to enhancing securityholder value. Management and the Board believe that the proposed Series C Debenture Amendments and Series B Debenture Amendments enhance the Company's strategy of pursuing long-term value creation for the benefit of its securityholders.

The Board believes that the Series C Debenture Amendments provide the following advantages:

- Continued Favourable Interest Rate: While the maturity date for the Series C Debentures is September 30, 2018, the maturity date for the Amended Series C Debentures will be extended to September 30, 2021, thereby affording Debentureholders a longer period of time during which to receive interest at a favourable rate. The Company believes the 7.50% interest rate on the Series C Debentures represents an attractive yield, especially in the current low-interest-rate environment and in light of other reinvestment opportunities available.
- Beneficial Change in the conversion rights of the Debentures: Series C Debentureholders will have the right to convert the Series C Debentures into common shares of the Company at a lower conversion price. Additionally, the conversion price will be satisfied entirely in common shares of the Company rather than in a combination of cash and common shares of the Company. Therefore, Series C Debentureholders will have more opportunity to participate in the growth of the Company's business. This conversion feature offers Series C Debentureholders the opportunity to generate capital appreciation from the Series C Debentures in addition to earning interest during the extended term.

- Strong Financial Position: The Company has the financial capacity, through its committed credit facilities, to redeem the Series C Debentures at this time. The Company believes that doing so would result in Debentureholders losing an attractive and recurring source of income as well as the potential for capital appreciation through the amended conversion feature of the Series C Debentures.

The Series B Debenture Amendments and the Series C Debenture Amendments, if approved, will amend the terms of the Series B Debentures and the Series C Debentures to provide that Debentureholders may, at their option, upon receiving an Exchange Notice from the Corporation exchange their Series B Debentures for New Debentures of the Corporation having the terms set forth in the Exchange Notice. As a result, Debentureholders will be able to elect to exchange their Debentures for New Debentures of the Company if the Company delivers an Exchange Notice to Series C Debentureholders or Series B Debentureholders, as applicable. Any such exchange would be voluntary. At this time, the Company is not proposing to make any exchange offer.

Recommendation of the Board

The Board has concluded that the Debenture Amendments are in the best interests of the Company and, as such, has authorized submission of the Debenture Amendments to Debentureholders for approval. The Board of Directors of the Company unanimously recommends that Debentureholders vote FOR the Debenture Amendments.

CERTAIN CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

In the opinion of Bennett Jones LLP, counsel to the Company, the following is a summary of the anticipated material Canadian federal income tax considerations to Debentureholders arising from and relating to the Debenture

Amendments. This summary is applicable to Debentureholders who are, at all relevant times, for purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the "Tax Act"), resident or deemed to be resident in Canada, deal at arm's length and are not affiliated with the Company and hold Debentures as capital property. Generally, the Debentures will be considered to be capital property to a holder provided that the holder does not hold the Debentures in the course of carrying on a business of buying and selling securities and has not acquired them in one or more transactions considered to be an adventure in the nature of trade.

This summary does not apply to certain "financial institutions" (as defined in the Tax Act) that are subject to the "mark-to-market" rules in the Tax Act, a Debentureholder to which the "tax shelter investment" rules in the Tax Act apply, a Debentureholder to which the "functional currency" reporting rules in subsection 261(4) of the Tax Act apply, or to a Debentureholder that has entered or will enter into a "derivative forward agreement" (as defined in the Tax Act) in respect of the Debentures. Such Debentureholders should consult their own tax advisors.

No legal opinion from legal counsel or ruling from the Canada Revenue Agency (the "CRA") has been requested, or will be obtained, regarding the Canadian federal income tax consequences of the Debenture Amendments to Debentureholders. This summary is not binding on the CRA, and the CRA is not precluded from taking a position that is different from, and contrary to, the positions taken in this summary. In addition, because the authorities on which this summary is based are subject to various interpretations, the CRA and the Canadian courts could disagree with one or more of the positions taken in this summary.

This summary is based upon the facts set out in this circular, the current provisions of the Tax Act, all specific proposals (the "Tax Proposals") to amend the Tax Act publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date hereof, and counsel's understanding of the current published administrative practices and assessing policies of the CRA. While this summary assumes that the Tax Proposals will be enacted as currently proposed, no assurance can be given that this will be the case. This summary is not exhaustive of all possible Canadian federal income tax consequences, and does not otherwise take into account or anticipate any changes in law, whether by legislative, governmental or judicial decision or action, or changes in administrative policies or assessing practices of the CRA, nor does it take into account provincial, territorial or foreign income tax legislation or considerations, which may differ significantly from those discussed herein.

This summary is of a general nature only and is not intended to be, and should not be construed to be, legal or tax advice to any Debentureholder, and no representations with respect to the income tax consequences to any such holder are made. Debentureholders should consult their own tax advisors for advice with respect to the income and capital tax consequences to them of the Debenture Amendments and acquiring, holding and disposing of Debentures, including the application and effect of the income and other tax laws of any country, province, state or local tax authority.

This summary does not address any Canadian federal income tax considerations applicable to non-residents of Canada, and non-residents should consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of holding Debentures and the Debenture Amendments.

Amendment of Debentures

It is not certain whether the Debenture Amendments would result in a disposition of the Debentures for Canadian tax purposes. Canadian jurisprudence has held that the amendment of one or more fundamental terms of a debt instrument can result in the creation of a new debt obligation in some circumstances, and for certain purposes. Thus, there can be no assurance that the CRA would not treat the Debenture Amendments as a disposition of the Debentures, or that a Canadian court would agree with the CRA's position. Each Debentureholder should consult its own tax advisor regarding the proper treatment of the Debenture Amendments for Canadian tax purposes.

In the event that the Debenture Amendments do not cause a disposition of the Debentures, then a Debentureholder will not be considered to have disposed of any property for tax purposes, and will have no adverse Canadian tax consequences at the Effective Time.

In the event that the Debenture Amendments do cause a disposition of the Debentures, a Debentureholder will be deemed to have received proceeds of disposition equal to the fair market value of the Debentures owned by the Debentureholder at the Effective Time. The Debentureholder will recognize a capital gain (or loss) on the disposition equal to the amount by which the Debentureholder's proceeds of disposition, net of any reasonable costs of disposition, are greater than (or less than) the adjusted cost base to the Debentureholder of the Debentures owned at the Effective Time. See "Taxation of Capital Gains and Losses". The cost of the Debentures to the Debentureholder after the Effective Time will be equal to the fair market value of the Debentures at the Effective Time.

Taxation of Debentureholders

Interest on Debentures

A Debentureholder that is a corporation, partnership, unit trust or any trust of which a corporation or partnership is a beneficiary will be required to include in computing its income for a taxation year all interest on the Debentures that accrues or is deemed to accrue to the holder to the end of the particular taxation year or that has become receivable by or is received by the holder before the end of that taxation year, except to the extent that such interest was included in computing the holder's income for a preceding taxation year.

Any other Debentureholder will be required to include in computing income for a taxation year all interest on the Debentures that is received or receivable by the holder in that taxation year (depending upon the method regularly followed by the holder in computing income), except to the extent that the interest was included in the holder's income for a preceding taxation year. In addition, if at any time a Debenture should become an "investment contract" (as defined in the Tax Act) in relation to the holder, such holder will be required to include in computing income for a taxation year any interest that accrues to the holder on the Debenture up to any "anniversary day" (as defined in the Tax Act) in that year except to the extent such interest was otherwise included in the holder's income for that year or a preceding year.

A Debentureholder that is a "Canadian-controlled private corporation" (as defined in the Tax Act) may be liable to pay an additional refundable tax of 10% on its investment income for the year, which generally includes interest income.

Exercise of Conversion Privilege

Generally, a Debentureholder who converts a Debenture into Common Shares pursuant to the conversion privilege will be deemed not to have disposed of the Debenture and, accordingly, will not be considered to realize a capital gain (or capital loss) on such conversion. Under the current administrative practice of the CRA, a holder who, upon conversion of a Debenture into Common Shares, receives cash not in excess of $200 in lieu of a fraction of a Common Share may treat this amount as proceeds of disposition of a portion of the Debenture, thereby realizing a capital gain (or capital loss), or reduce the adjusted cost base of the Common Shares that the holder receives on the conversion by the amount of the cash received.

Upon a conversion of a Debenture, interest accrued thereon to the date of conversion will be included in computing the income of the holder as described above under "Interest on Debentures". The aggregate cost to a holder of the Common Shares acquired on the conversion of a Debenture generally will be equal to the holder's adjusted cost base of the Debenture immediately before the conversion. The adjusted cost base to a holder of a Common Share at any time will be averaged with the adjusted cost base of any other Common Shares held by the holder as capital property at the time.

Redemption or Repayment of Debentures

If the Company redeems a Debenture prior to the Maturity Date or repays a Debenture upon the Maturity Date, the holder will be considered to dispose of the Debenture at that time for proceeds of disposition equal to the amount received by the holder (other than the amount received as interest) on such redemption or repayment. Upon disposition, any interest paid to a holder, or interest that has accrued on the Debenture to the date of disposition and which would otherwise be payable after that date, must be included in computing the income of the holder, except to the extent that it was included in computing the income of the holder for that or a previous taxation year. A holder will generally realize a capital gain (or capital loss) equal to the amount by which the holder's proceeds of disposition are greater (or less) than the adjusted cost base to the holder of the Debenture and any reasonable costs of disposition. See "Taxation of Capital Gains and Losses".

Other Disposition of Debentures

A disposition or deemed disposition by a holder of a Debenture (other than on a conversion, redemption or repayment) will generally result in the holder realizing a capital gain (or capital loss) equal to the amount by which the proceeds of disposition are greater (or less) than the aggregate of the holder's adjusted cost base thereof and any reasonable costs of disposition. See "Taxation of Capital Gains and Losses".

Upon such a disposition or deemed disposition of a Debenture, interest accrued thereon to the date of disposition and not yet due will be included in computing the holder's income, except to the extent such amount was otherwise included in the holder's income, and will be excluded in computing the holder's proceeds of disposition of the Debenture.

Taxation of Capital Gains and Losses

Generally, one-half of any capital gain (a "taxable capital gain") realized by a holder in a taxation year must be included in the income of the holder for the year, and one-half of any capital loss (an "allowable capital loss") realized by a holder in a taxation year may be deducted from taxable capital gains realized by the holder in that year. Allowable capital losses for a taxation year in excess of taxable capital gains for that year generally may be carried back and deducted in any of the three preceding taxation years or carried forward and deducted in any subsequent taxation year against net capital gains realized in such years to the extent and under the circumstances described in the Tax Act.

A holder that throughout the relevant taxation year is a "Canadian-controlled private corporation", as defined in the Tax Act, may be liable to pay an additional refundable tax of 10% on certain investment income, including interest and taxable capital gains. Capital gains realized by a holder who is an individual may give rise to a liability for alternative minimum tax.

GENERAL PROXY AND SERIES C DEBENTUREHOLDER MEETING MATTERS

Solicitation of Proxies and Voting Instructions

This Circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies and voting instructions by management of the Company to be used at the Series C Debentureholder Meeting. It is expected that the solicitation will be made primarily by mail, but proxies and voting instructions may also be solicited personally by employees of the Company at nominal costs.

Management may also retain one or more proxy solicitation firms on customary terms to solicit proxies on its behalf by telephone or electronic mail. The total cost the solicitation of proxies and voting instructions will be borne by the Company.

Beneficial Series C Debentureholders

The Series C Debentures have been issued in the form of global certificates registered in the name of CDS & Co. As such, CDS & Co. is the sole registered holder of Series C Debentures. Accordingly, all Series C Debentureholders do not hold their Series C Debentures in their own name. Such Series C Debentures are held by such Series C Debentureholders through one or more intermediaries (such as a bank, trust company, securities dealer or broker, or trustee or administrator of a self-administered RRSP, RRIF, RESP or similar plan).

Only registered Series C Debentureholders, or their duly appointed proxyholders, are permitted to attend and vote at the Series C Debentureholder Meeting or to appoint or revoke a proxy. If you are a beneficial owner, you are entitled to: (i) direct how the Series C Debentures beneficially owned by you are to be voted, or (ii) obtain a legal form of proxy that will entitle you to attend and vote at the Series C Debentureholder Meeting.

Applicable Canadian securities laws require the Company to forward meeting materials to depositories and other intermediaries for onward distribution to beneficial owners who have not waived their right to receive such materials and to seek voting instructions from such beneficial Series C Debentureholders in advance of the Series C

Debentureholder Meeting. Typically, intermediaries will use a service company (such as Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc.) to forward the meeting materials to, and to obtain voting instructions from, beneficial owners.

If you are a beneficial Series C Debentureholder, you will receive either a voting instruction form or a form of proxy with your meeting materials. The purpose of these documents is to permit you to direct the voting of the Series C Series C Debentures you beneficially own. Every broker and other intermediary has its own mailing procedures and provides its own return instructions. You should follow the instructions on the document you receive from your broker or other intermediary and the procedures set out below, depending on what type of document you receive.

Request for Voting Instructions

If you do not wish to, or are unable to, attend the Series C Debentureholder Meeting (or want another person who need not be a Series C Debentureholder to attend and vote on your behalf), you should complete, sign and return the enclosed request for voting instructions in accordance with the directions provided. You may revoke your voting instructions prior to the Series C Debentureholder Meeting by following the instructions provided by your broker or other intermediary.

Form of Proxy

The form of proxy may be signed by your intermediary (typically by a facsimile, stamped signature) and completed to indicate the number of Series C Debentures beneficially owned by you. If the form of proxy has not been completed, it is being used by your intermediary to obtain voting instructions only, in which case you should follow the instructions set forth under "Beneficial Series C Debentureholders – Request for Voting Instructions".

If the form of proxy is completed and you do not wish to, or are unable to, attend the Series C Debentureholder Meeting you should complete the form of proxy and deposit it in accordance with the instructions set out in the section titled "Registered Series C Debentureholders" below. GENERAL PROXY AND SERIES B DEBENTUREHOLDER MEETING MATTERS

This Circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies and voting instructions by management of the Company to be used at the Series B Debentureholder Meeting. It is expected that the solicitation will be made primarily by mail, but proxies and voting instructions may also be solicited personally by employees of the Company at nominal costs.

Management may also retain one or more proxy solicitation firms on customary terms to solicit proxies on its behalf by telephone or electronic mail. The total cost of the solicitation of proxies and voting instructions will be borne by the Company.

Beneficial Series B Debentureholders

The Series B Debentures have been issued in the form of global certificates registered in the name of CDS & Co. As such, CDS & Co. is the sole registered holder of Series B Debentures. Accordingly, all Series B Debentureholders do not hold their Series B Debentures in their own name. Such Series B Debentures are held by such Series B Debentureholders through one or more intermediaries (such as a bank, trust company, securities dealer or broker, or trustee or administrator of a self-administered RRSP, RRIF, RESP or similar plan).

Only registered Series B Debentureholders, or their duly appointed proxyholders, are permitted to attend and vote at the Series B Debentureholder Meeting or to appoint or revoke a proxy. If you are a beneficial owner, you are entitled to: (i) direct how the Series B Debentures beneficially owned by you are to be voted, or (ii) obtain a legal form of proxy that will entitle you to attend and vote at the Series B Debentureholder Meeting.

Applicable Canadian securities laws require the Company to forward meeting materials to depositories and other intermediaries for onward distribution to beneficial owners who have not waived their right to receive such materials and to seek voting instructions from such beneficial Series B Debentureholders in advance of the Series B Debentureholder Meeting. Typically, intermediaries will use a service company (such as Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc.) to forward the meeting materials to, and to obtain voting instructions from, beneficial owners.

If you are a beneficial Series B Debentureholder, you will receive either a voting instruction form or a form of proxy with your meeting materials. The purpose of these documents is to permit you to direct the voting of the Series B Debentures you beneficially own. Every broker and other intermediary has its own mailing procedures and provides its own return instructions. You should follow the instructions on the document you receive from your broker or other intermediary and the procedures set out below, depending on what type of document you receive.

Request for Voting Instructions

If you do not wish to, or are unable to, attend the Series B Debentureholder Meeting (or want another person who need not be a Series B Debentureholder to attend and vote on your behalf), you should complete, sign and return the enclosed request for voting instructions in accordance with the directions provided. You may revoke your voting instructions prior to the Series B Debentureholder Meeting by following the instructions provided by your broker or other intermediary.

If you wish to attend the Series B Debentureholder Meeting and vote in person (or have another person who need not be a Series B Debentureholder to attend and vote on your behalf), you must complete, sign and return the enclosed request for voting instructions in accordance with the directions provided and a legal form of proxy will be sent to you giving you (or such other person) the right to attend and vote at the Series B Debentureholder Meeting. If you seek a legal form of proxy, you should follow the directions below under the heading "Beneficial Series B Debentureholders – Form of Proxy".

Form of Proxy

The form of proxy may be signed by your intermediary (typically by a facsimile, stamped signature) and completed to indicate the number of Series B Debentures beneficially owned by you. If the form of proxy has not been completed, it is being used by your intermediary to obtain voting instructions only, in which case you should follow the instructions set forth under "Beneficial Series B Debentureholders – Request for Voting Instructions".

If the form of proxy is completed and you do not wish to, or are unable to, attend the Series B Debentureholder Meeting you should complete the form of proxy and deposit it in accordance with the instructions set out in the section titled "Registered Series B Debentureholders" below. If you wish to attend the Series B Debentureholder Meeting, you must strike out the names of the persons named in the form of proxy and insert your name in the blank space provided. To be valid, proxies must be completed and returned to the Debenture Trustee in the manner and with the times set forth under "Registered Series B Debentureholders – Appointment of Proxies". You must register with the Debenture Trustee when you arrive at the Series B Debentureholder Meeting.

You should follow the instructions on the document that you have received and contact your intermediary promptly if you need assistance.

Registered Series B Debentureholders

If you are a registered Series B Debentureholder, you may vote in person at the Series B Debentureholder Meeting or you may appoint another person to represent you as your proxyholder to vote your Series B Debentures on your behalf. If you wish to attend the Series B Debentureholder Meeting do not complete or return the enclosed form of proxy because you will vote in person at the Series B Debentureholder Meeting. Please register with the Debenture Trustee when you arrive at the Series B Debentureholder Meeting.

Appointment of Proxies

If you are a registered Series B Debentureholder and do not wish to, or are unable to, attend the Series B Debentureholder Meeting you can exercise your right to vote by completing, signing and returning a form of proxy for the Series B Debentures to Computershare Trust Company of Canada by mail or delivery in person to Computershare Trust Company of Canada at 100 University Avenue, 9th Floor, North Tower, Toronto, Ontario, M5J 2Y1, in each case so as to ensure that the applicable form(s) of proxy arrives not later than 2:30 p.m. (Eastern Daylight time), on August 4, 2017 or, if the Series B Debentureholder Meeting is adjourned, 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before any adjourned Series B Debentureholder Meeting.

The individuals named in the enclosed form of proxy are representatives of the Company or its affiliates. You have the right to appoint someone else to represent you at the Series B Debentureholder Meeting and may do so by striking out the names of the persons named in the form of proxy for the Series B Debentureholder Meeting and inserting that other person's name in the blank space provided in the form of proxy. The person you appoint to represent you at the Series B Debentureholder Meeting need not be another Series B Debentureholder.

Revocation of Proxies

If you have submitted a form of proxy and later wish to revoke it, you can do so by:

- (a) completing and signing the applicable form of proxy bearing a later date and depositing it with Computershare Trust Company of Canada as described above;
- (b) depositing a document that is signed by you (or by someone you have properly authorized to act on your behalf): (i) at the registered office of the Company, 6009 Quinpool Road, 10th Floor,

Halifax, Nova Scotia B3K 5J7 to the attention of the "Chairman of the Board of Directors", at any time up to the last Business Day preceding the day of the Series B Debentureholder Meeting or any adjournment thereof, at which the form of proxy is to be used; or (ii) with the chairman of the Series B Debentureholder Meeting before the meeting starts on the day of the meeting or any adjournment thereof; or

- (c) following any other procedure that is permitted by law.

Only registered Series B Debentureholders have the right to revoke a proxy. Beneficial Series B Debentureholders who wish to change their vote must make appropriate arrangements with their brokers or other intermediaries. See "Beneficial Series B Debentureholders".

Voting of Proxies

In connection with any ballot that may be called for, the representatives designated in the enclosed form of proxy will vote the Series B Debentures represented thereby for or against the Series B Debentureholder Resolution in accordance with the instructions indicated on the form of proxy and, if a choice is specified with respect to any matter to be acted upon, the Series B Debentures will be voted accordingly. In the absence of any direction, the Series B Debentures will be voted FOR the Debentureholder Resolution.

The representatives designated in the enclosed form of proxy have discretionary authority with respect to amendments to or variations of matters identified in the Notice of Serial Meeting of Series B Debentureholders and with respect to other matters that may properly come before the Series B Debentureholder Meeting.

At the date of this Circular, representatives of the Company know of no such amendments, variations or other matters.

Quorum and Votes Necessary to Pass the Debentureholder Resolution

Under the Indenture, the quorum necessary for the transaction of business at the Series B Debentureholder Meeting consists of Series B Debentureholders present in person or by proxy and representing at least 25% in principal amount of the outstanding Series B Debentures. Under the Indenture, if, at the Series B Debentureholder Meeting, the holders of not less than 25% in principal amount of the Series B Debentures outstanding are not present in person or by proxy within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the Series B Debentureholder Meeting, then the Series B Debentureholder Meeting shall be adjourned to such date, being not less than 14 nor more than 60 days later, and to such place and time as may be appointed by the chair of the Series B Debentureholder Meeting. At the adjourned Series B Debentureholder Meeting, the Series B Debentureholders present in person or by proxy shall form a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was originally convened and a resolution proposed at such adjourned meeting and passed by the requisite vote shall be an "Extraordinary Resolution" within the meaning of the Indenture, notwithstanding that the holders of not less than 25% in principal amount of the Series B Debentures then outstanding are not present in person or by proxy at such adjourned Series B Debentureholder Meeting.

Interest of Certain Persons or Companies in Matters to be Acted Upon

Except as otherwise disclosed in this Circular, no director or executive officer of the Company at any time since the beginning of the Company's last financial year nor any of their respective associates or affiliates, has any material interest, direct or indirect, by way of beneficial ownership of securities or otherwise in any matter to be acted upon at the Debentureholder Meetings.

HOLLOWAY LODGING CORPORATION

(a corporation incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario))

SERIES C CONVERTIBLE UNSECURED SUBORDINATED DEBENTURE

Due September 30, 2021

HOLLOWAY LODGING CORPORATION (the "Corporation") for value received hereby acknowledges itself indebted and, subject to the provisions of the Second Amended and Restated Trust Indenture (the "Indenture") dated as of July 31, 2014 between the Corporation and Computershare Trust Company of Canada (the "Indenture Trustee"), as supplemented by the First Supplemental Indenture dated August __, 2017, promises to pay to the registered holder hereof on September 30, 2021 (the "Maturity Date") or on such earlier date as the principal amount hereof may become due in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture, the principal sum of _____ Dollars ($ _____) in lawful money of Canada on presentation and surrender of this Debenture at the main branch of the Indenture Trustee in Halifax, Nova Scotia or Toronto, Ontario in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and to pay interest on the principal amount hereof from the date hereof, or from the last interest payment date to which interest shall have been paid or made available for payment on the outstanding Series C Debentures (as hereinafter defined), whichever is later, at the rate of 6.25% per annum, in like money, in arrears in equal semi-annual installments (less any tax required by law to be deducted) on September 30 and March 31 in each year commencing on June 30, 2007 and at a rate of 7.50% commencing on March 31, 2013 and, should the Corporation at any time make default in the payment of any principal or interest, to pay interest on the amount in default at the same rate, in like money.

Interest hereon shall be payable by electronic funds transfer or by cheque mailed to the registered holder hereof and, subject to the provisions of the Indenture, the electronic funds transfer or mailing of such cheque shall, to the extent of the sum represented thereby (plus the amount of any tax withheld), satisfy and discharge all liability for interest on this Series C Debenture. Subject to applicable law and applicable regulatory approval, the Corporation shall have the right, at its option upon not more than 60 days' and not less than 15 days' prior written notice, to elect to satisfy its obligation to pay interest on the Series C Debentures, in whole or in part, in each case, by issuing and delivering Freely Tradeable Common Shares to Debentureholders in accordance with the terms of the Indenture.

This Series C Debenture is one of the Series C Convertible Unsecured Subordinated Debentures due on the Maturity Date of the Corporation issued or issuable under the provisions of the Indenture (referred to herein as the "Series C Debentures"). The Series C Debentures are limited to an aggregate principal amount of $69,000,000 in lawful money of Canada. Reference is hereby expressly made to the Indenture for a description of the terms and conditions upon which the Series C Debentures are or are to be issued and held and the rights and remedies of the holders of the Series C Debentures and of the Corporation and of the Indenture Trustee, all to the same effect as if the provisions of the Indenture were herein set forth, to all of which provisions the holder of this Series C Debenture by acceptance hereof assents.

The Series C Debentures are issuable only in denominations of $1,000 and integral multiples thereof. Upon compliance with the provisions of the Indenture, Series C Debentures of any denomination may be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of Series C Debentures in any other authorized denomination or denominations.

The whole, or if this Series C Debenture is in a denomination in excess of $1,000, any part of which is $1,000 or an integral multiple thereof, of the principal of this Series C Debenture is convertible, at the option of the holder hereof, upon surrender of this Series C Debenture at the principal office of the Indenture Trustee in Halifax, Nova Scotia or Toronto, Ontario, at any time prior to the close of Business on the Business Day immediately preceding the Maturity Date, into Common Shares (without adjustment for interest accrued hereon or for dividends or distributions on Common Shares issuable upon conversion) at a conversion price of $12.50 (the "Conversion Price") per Common Share, being a rate of 80 Common Shares for each $1,000 principal amount of the Series C Debentures, all subject to the terms and conditions and in the manner set forth in the Indenture. The Indenture makes provision for the adjustment of the Conversion Price in the events therein specified. No fractional Common Shares will be issued on any conversion but in lieu thereof, the Corporation will satisfy such fractional interests by a cash payment equal to the market price of such fractional interest determined in accordance with the Indenture. Holders converting their Series C Debentures will receive accrued and unpaid interest thereon.

This Debenture is not redeemable on or before September 30, 2009. On and after October 1, 2010 but prior to September 30, 2011, this Debenture is redeemable, in whole or in part, at a price equal to the principal amount therefor, plus accrued and unpaid interest, at the Corporation's sole option on not more than 60 days' and not less than 30 days' prior notice, provided that the current market price on the date on which notice of redemption is given is not less than 125% of the Conversion Price. After September 30, 2011, but prior to the Maturity Date, the Debentures will be redeemable, in whole or in part, at a price equal to the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, at the Corporation's sole option of not more than 60 days' and not less than 15 days' prior notice. In the case of a redemption of less than all of the Debentures, the Debentures to be redeemed will be selected by the Indenture Trustee on a pro rata basis or in such other manner as the Indenture Trustee deems equitable, subject to the consent of the Toronto Stock Exchange.

If a takeover bid for the Series C Debentures, within the meaning of the Securities Act (Nova Scotia), is made and 90% or more of the principal amount of all the Series C Debentures (other than the Series C Debentures held at the date of the takeover bid by or on behalf of the Offeror, Associates or Affiliates of the Offeror or anyone acting jointly or in concert with the Offeror) are taken up and paid for by the Offeror, the Offeror will be entitled to acquire the Series C Debentures of those holders who did not accept the offer on the same terms as the Offeror acquired the first 90% of the principal amount of the Series C Debentures.

The Corporation may, on notice as provided in the Indenture, at its option (subject to any applicable regulatory approval), elect to satisfy the obligation to repay the principal amount of this Series C

Debenture due on the Maturity Date by the issue of that number of Common Shares obtained by dividing the principal amount of the Series C Debentures then outstanding by 95% of the weighted average trading price of the Common Shares on the Toronto Stock Exchange for the 20 consecutive trading days ending on the fifth trading day preceding the Maturity Date.

The indebtedness evidenced by this Series C Debenture, and by all other Series C Debentures now or hereafter certified and delivered under the Indenture, is a direct unsecured obligation of the Corporation, and is subordinated in right of payment, to the extent and in the manner provided in the Indenture, to the prior payment of all Senior Indebtedness, whether outstanding at the date of the Indenture or thereafter created, incurred, assumed or guaranteed, provided that the Series C Debentures will rank pari passu with the Series B Debentures.

The principal hereof may become or be declared due and payable before the stated maturity in the events, in the manner, with the effect and at the times provided in the Indenture.

The Indenture contains provisions making binding upon all holders of Debentures outstanding thereunder (or in certain circumstances, specific series of Debentures) resolutions passed at meetings of such holders held in accordance with such provisions and instruments signed by the holders of a specified majority of Debentures outstanding (or specific series), which resolutions or instruments may have the effect of amending the terms of this Series C Debenture or the Indenture.

The Indenture contains provisions disclaiming any personal liability on the part of holders of Common Shares or the directors, officers or agents of the Corporation in respect of any obligation or claim arising out of the Indenture or this Series C Debenture.

This Series C Debenture may only be transferred, upon compliance with the conditions prescribed in the Indenture, in one of the registers to be kept at the principal offices of the Indenture Trustee in Halifax, Nova Scotia or Toronto, Ontario and in such other place or places and/or by such other registrars (if any) as the Corporation with the approval of the Indenture Trustee may designate. No transfer of this Series C Debenture shall be valid unless made to the register by the registered holder hereof or his executors or administrators or other legal representatives, or his or their attorney duly appointed by an instrument in form and substance satisfactory to the Indenture Trustee or other registrar, and upon compliance with such reasonable requirements as the Indenture Trustee and/or other registrar may prescribe and upon surrender of this Series C Debenture for cancellation.

This Series C Debenture shall not become obligatory for any purpose until it shall have been certified by the Indenture Trustee under the Indenture.

Capitalized words or expressions used in this Series C Debenture shall, unless otherwise defined herein, have the meaning ascribed thereto in the Indenture.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF HOLLOWAY LODGING CORPORATION has caused this Series C Debenture to be signed by its authorized representative as of the ● day of ●, 20●.
